PORT OF
St. MAARTEN

Your Port of Call

Welcome Message

The FCCA and its Member Lines welcome you to the 14th Annual Gala Dinner Extravaganza. Tonight we reaffirm our pledge to take a pro-active stance on issues that affect our destination partners. We are glad to see others join our cause and hope you become as adamant as the cruise industry is, though your main concern for tonight should be enjoyment.

We would like to extend our gratitude to you, our friends and partners for your continued support on behalf of the region we represent. The proceeds of tonight benefits the FCCA Foundation, so rest easy knowing that already tonight you assisted our effort to help the people living throughout the Caribbean and Latin America.

Everyone present tonight has some involvement in the cruise industry. We are happy to have all ends of the spectrum represented and realize the impact of everyone's participation. Hopefully you can take advantage of the networking opportunities this event presents and forge meaningful business and/or relationships. Maybe you can take the time to catch up with those already established. We are pleased to provide you with a forum that allows the chance for the industry to thrive and grow as a whole.

It is through the cooperative efforts of the cruise industry and its partners that the Foundation has flourished. Its continued growth and success is based on your support. This evening's Gala is evidence of this support. With your help, we intend to accomplish even more in the years ahead.

We would also like to thank the Port of Miami for making this evening possible allowing us to create an engaging environment.

Have a delightful evening. We hope that you enjoy yourselves and look forward to seeing you at future FCCA events.

Foundation History

The FCCA Foundation is a charity that is dedicated to helping the people of the Caribbean and Latin America. The Foundation answers the needs presented by the destinations for the betterment of the people of the region.

Participation in events such as the Holiday Gift Project, Food Programs, Caribbean Special Olympics, and Hurricane Relief Projects have helped improve the lives of the people in the destinations over the last 15 years with the FCCA Foundation raising and donating over 3 million dollars.

In 2007 the Holiday Gift Project alone brought an onslaught of joy and gifts to over 8,000 underprivileged children throughout 28 destinations.

Events such as the FCCA's annual online auction facilitates more of the funding to take place through the money gained. The FCCA online auction offered more than 100 donated items from our Member Lines, private and public sector partners, including

Dear Michelle,

This letter encompasses a sincere gratitude on behalf of all the children who were privileged this Christmas, clearly expressed by the smiles given away together with a look of surprise when they received their presents and by which we feel how their small hearts beat filled with joy.

This is a comprehensive gratefulness as this institution takes pride in you, who lent a hand to DIF Cozumel all this time, painting smiles on the faces of the children of Cozumel, and though we have expressed this to you before, our experience of working alongside with you was by far gratifying and wonderful.

We are therefore motivated to share with you the results of your significant donation, attaching herein a file that includes a DVD with the information about the delivery of the bicycles.

Our very best wishes for FCCA this year and may God fill you with blessings for bigheartedly love for Cozumel.

ele, estive season, I want to write to you again in your capacity as the Director of to express our thanks and the participation of FCCA and Holland America in 2006 a memorable year for Ministries In Action and especially for the Grenadian

As I probably mentioned already in my last correspondence to you, Senator Brenda Hood of the Grenadian Government was pleasantly surprised at the standard of the houses we are building and publicly expressed that in the presence of our Chairman and Captain Schoonderbeck.

MIA has featured FCCA and Holland America in our December update which you will receive soon. Enclosed is a collage of pictures of our effort in Grenada for your view

Improving the Lives of Citizens in

A Foundation in the Caribbean & Latin America

Holiday Gift Project

All of us like to receive gifts. Even as adults, the child in each of us that enjoys receiving gifts never grows up. Instead, each holiday season, we anticipate the joy of opening brightly wrapped packages, pulling apart the bows, ripping the paper, tearing into the box or package inside. It is the joy of discovery, the joy of something brand new, the joy of being surprised – and especially the joy that comes from knowing that someone cares about us. Even if it's Santa Claus!

For thousands of children throughout the region served by the FCCA and its members, this joy would be missed except for the generosity of spirit that is generated each year by FCCA Member cruise lines and their crew. These anonymous Santa's Helpers deliver the gifts that are provided to 8,000 children in 28 destinations.

Coordinated by the FCCA Foundation, the 12th annual FCCA Holiday Gift Project sounds much more formal in title than the actual human experience. Just as children all over the world look eagerly to the skies for the sight of Santa and his reindeer, thousands of children living in the Caribbean and Latin America look to the seas for a different kind of gift-laden sleigh.

These good-will ambassadors rarely know the children they are giving to. Many do not even speak the same language. Yet each year, the crew and staff of FCCA Member Lines deliver enough gifts for the estimated 8,000 children living in such institutions as orphanages, homeless shelters, foster homes and schools.

The enthusiasm cruise line crew members feel for this annual holiday project can be seen in a comment by Crew Member Michael Rodriguez of Royal Caribbean International's Monarch of the Seas:

"The event was enjoyed by all, and it was a heart-warming experience truly representative of what Christmas is all about – giving," he said. "Thank you for letting us be part of this wonderful event, and we look forward to it again next year."

The FCCA Foundation, in its 14th year, continues to improve the lives of citizens in the Caribbean and Latin America through projects such as this. The Foundation has impacted the lives of tens of thousands, providing over $3 million in funding to a variety of organizations and causes.

Environmental Poster Competition

Each year the Florida-Caribbean Cruise Association invites students from the Caribbean and Latin America to participate in the annual FCCA Foundation Children's Environmental Poster Competition. This year, fourteen destinations throughout the Caribbean and Latin American region participated. One entry per category was selected as winners for their message that advocated the role each destination plays in preserving the environment.

Winners included 8-year-old Melanie Yuridia Salgado Garcia of Colegio Boston from Mexico in the Junior Division (ages 12 and younger) and 14-year-old Rohaan K. Allport of Saint Mary's Academy from Dominica in the Senior Division (ages 13 – 16).

Students throughout the Caribbean and Latin America were asked to create a poster that visually depicted at least three ways they believe could help protect the environment and promote environmental awareness in their country. The competition's purpose is to promote and stimulate environmental awareness among students and effectively educate younger generations on the importance of environmental protection. Each country submitted one poster in each age category to represent as its finalists.

Melanie Yuridia Salgado Garcia's poster, "Together we can save our planet," illustrates how performing simple tasks can reduce the amount of carbon dioxide released into the environment and, in turn, help save our planet. The poster depicts the practices of planting trees, driving less, recycling more and saving water. The 8-year-old's artistic creation provides a valuable reminder of how valuable a single tree can be to the environment and how each of us can contribute to a healthier planet. For example, a single tree absorbs one ton of carbon dioxide over its lifetime. Walking, biking or taking a bus will save one pound of carbon dioxide for every kilometer you don't drive. You can save 2,400 pounds of carbon dioxide per year by recycling just half of your household waste. Reducing your time in the shower to five minutes can help us all save water.

Rohaan K. Allport's poster, "Protecting Dominica's Environment," displays icons of Dominica's terrestrial and marine environment. The poster displays the Sisserou parrot, forests, agriculture and the turtle to highlight the importance of conserving and protecting the environment for the benefit of future generations.

The FCCA also congratulates the second and third place winners in each division. Second place finalists were eleven-year-old Josie Lee from Belize in the Junior Category and fifteen-year-old Emma Edgehill from Barbados in the Senior Category. Third place winners were eleven-year-old Lianne Guy from Jamaica in the Junior Category and sixteen-year-old Karlyle Allen from Jamaica in the Senior Category. Second place winners in both categories will each receive US $1,500 and third place winners will receive US $1,000. The winners, Melanie and Rohaan will each receive an educational scholarship of US $3,000. The FCCA will also award the schools of the first, second, and third place winners in both categories the same amount received by their winning student in lieu of art supplies. The other finalists in each division will receive US $200 rewarding their participation and good work.
